1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-3,6-8, drawn to nucleic acids, classified in class 536, subclass 23.5.
 - II. Claims 4,5,9,10 drawn to polypeptides, classified in class 530, subclass 350.
 - III. Claims 11 and 12, drawn to a screening method, classified in class 435, subclass 7.1.
2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons.
3. Inventions II and III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the claimed peptide could be used for immunopurification procedures.
4. The nucleic acids of Group I are not used in the method of Group III. Therefore they are novel and unobvious in view of each other and are patentably distinct.
4. Inventions I and II are different products. These products are structurally and functionally distinct and have different uses. Invention I is drawn to a peptide, while invention II is drawn to nucleic acids. These products are structurally different and have different uses (eg. hybridization assays using invention II, versus immunopurification or immunoassay using the claimed peptide). Therefore they are novel and unobvious in view of each other and are patentably distinct.
5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for any group from Groups I-III are not required for any other group from Groups I-III and Groups I-III have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification and divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. Applicant is advised that the response to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed.

7. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention.

The nucleic or protein or method (depending on which invention applicant elects above) wherein the molecule is a)CD11b α or b)CD11a α .

These molecules have different amino acid sequences and are structurally distinct.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

8. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 C.F.R. § 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a diligently-filed petition under 37 C.F.R. § 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 C.F.R. § 1.17(h).

9. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the Examiner should be directed to Dr. Ron Schwadron whose telephone number is (703) 308-4680. The examiner can normally be reached Monday through Thursday from 7:30 to 6:00. A message may be left on the examiners voice mail service. If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the Examiner's supervisor, Ms Christina Chan can be reached on (703) 308-3974.
